FOREWORD

We, the class of 1961 A.D., invite you to become a spectator as this, our final year at D.A.H.S., unfolds before you.

Through our yearbook medium we aspire to share with you every phase of our school life.

In attempting to present all our various sports, literary, and musical activities, our underclassmen and associates, our faculty and administrators, we have, perhaps, overlooked or misrepresented some phase — if so, we offer profoundest apologies. However, we sincerely hope our efforts have created a favorable and lasting impression of the class of '61.

APPRECIATION

Mr. Cooper, Mr. Layser, the Spectator Staff of 1961 wishes to express its appreciation of the invaluable assistance and guidance you have rendered during the production of this year's volume.

Although you left D.A.H.S. in December, Mr. Cooper, your boundless energy and able supervision will always be remembered by us. You instilled within us the desire to complete a yearbook estimable of recognition and, we hope, commendation.

You, Mr. Layser, have been a competent aid throughout the year in that you've given unselfishly of your time and energy to help us assemble our book properly and meet our deadlines on time.

Again we thank you both for being there when you were needed and for always being willing and able to help.

DEDICATION

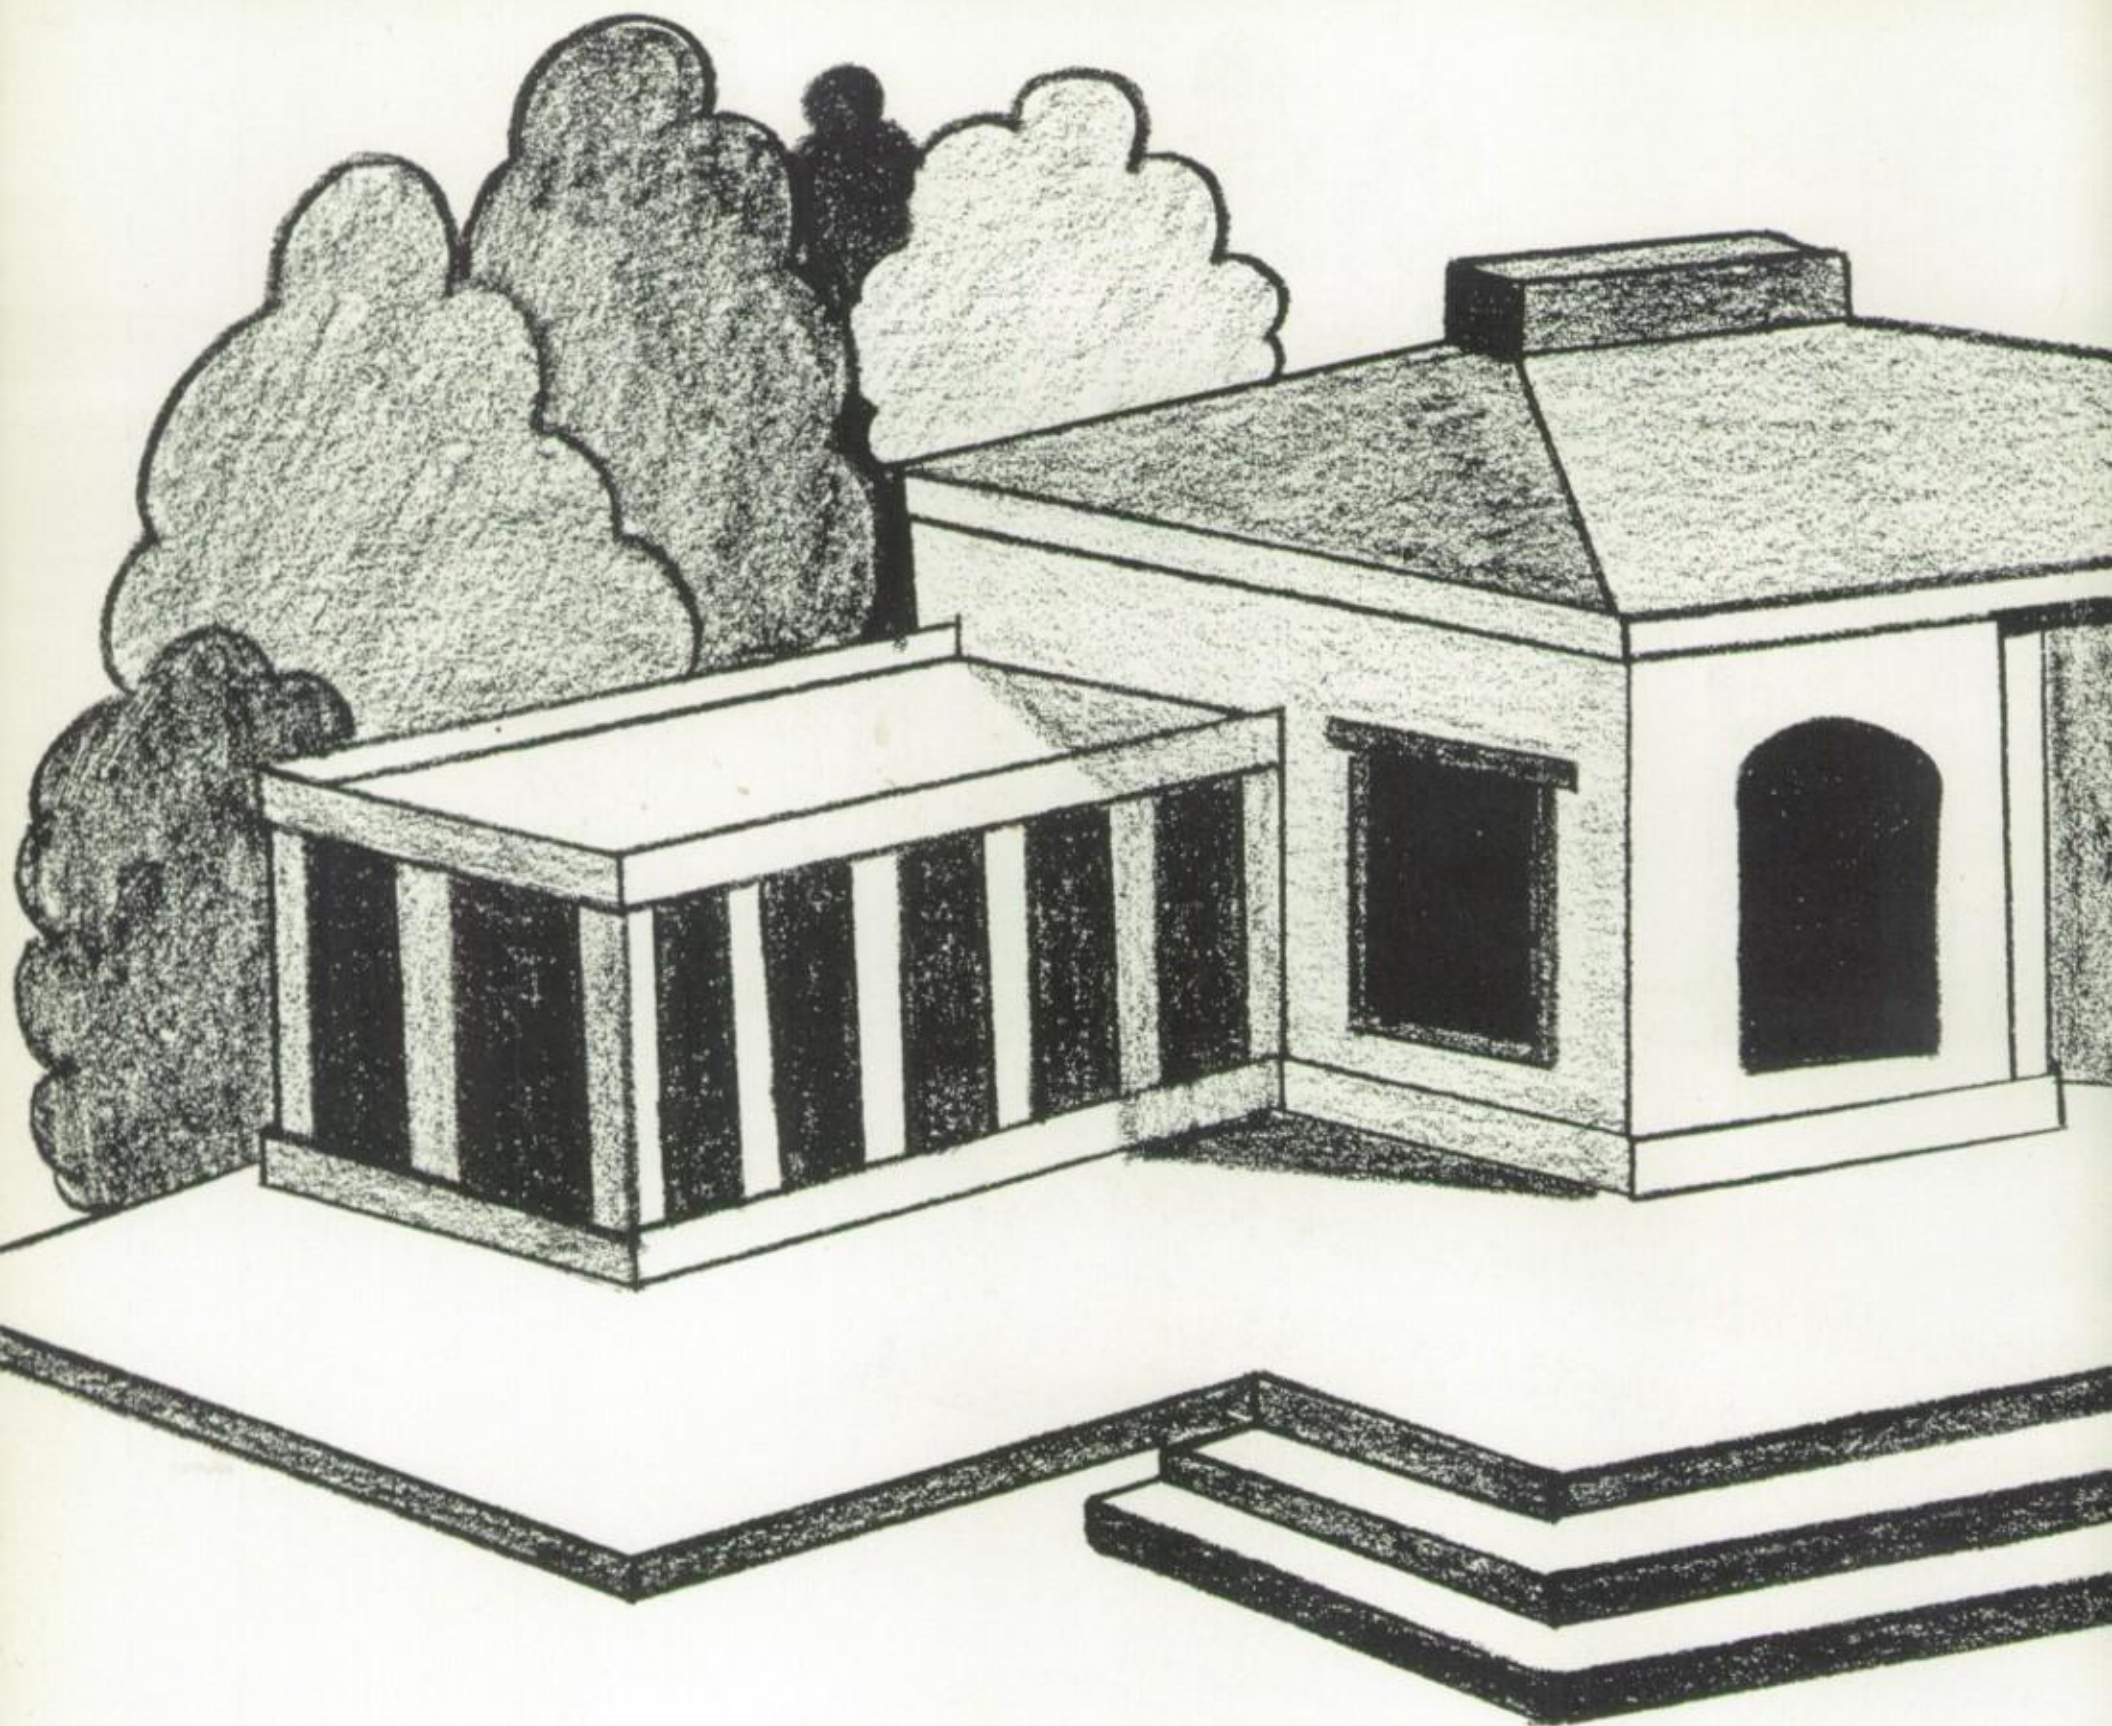

Mr. Harold Berger
B.A. — Millersville State Tchrs. College
M.S. — Temple University

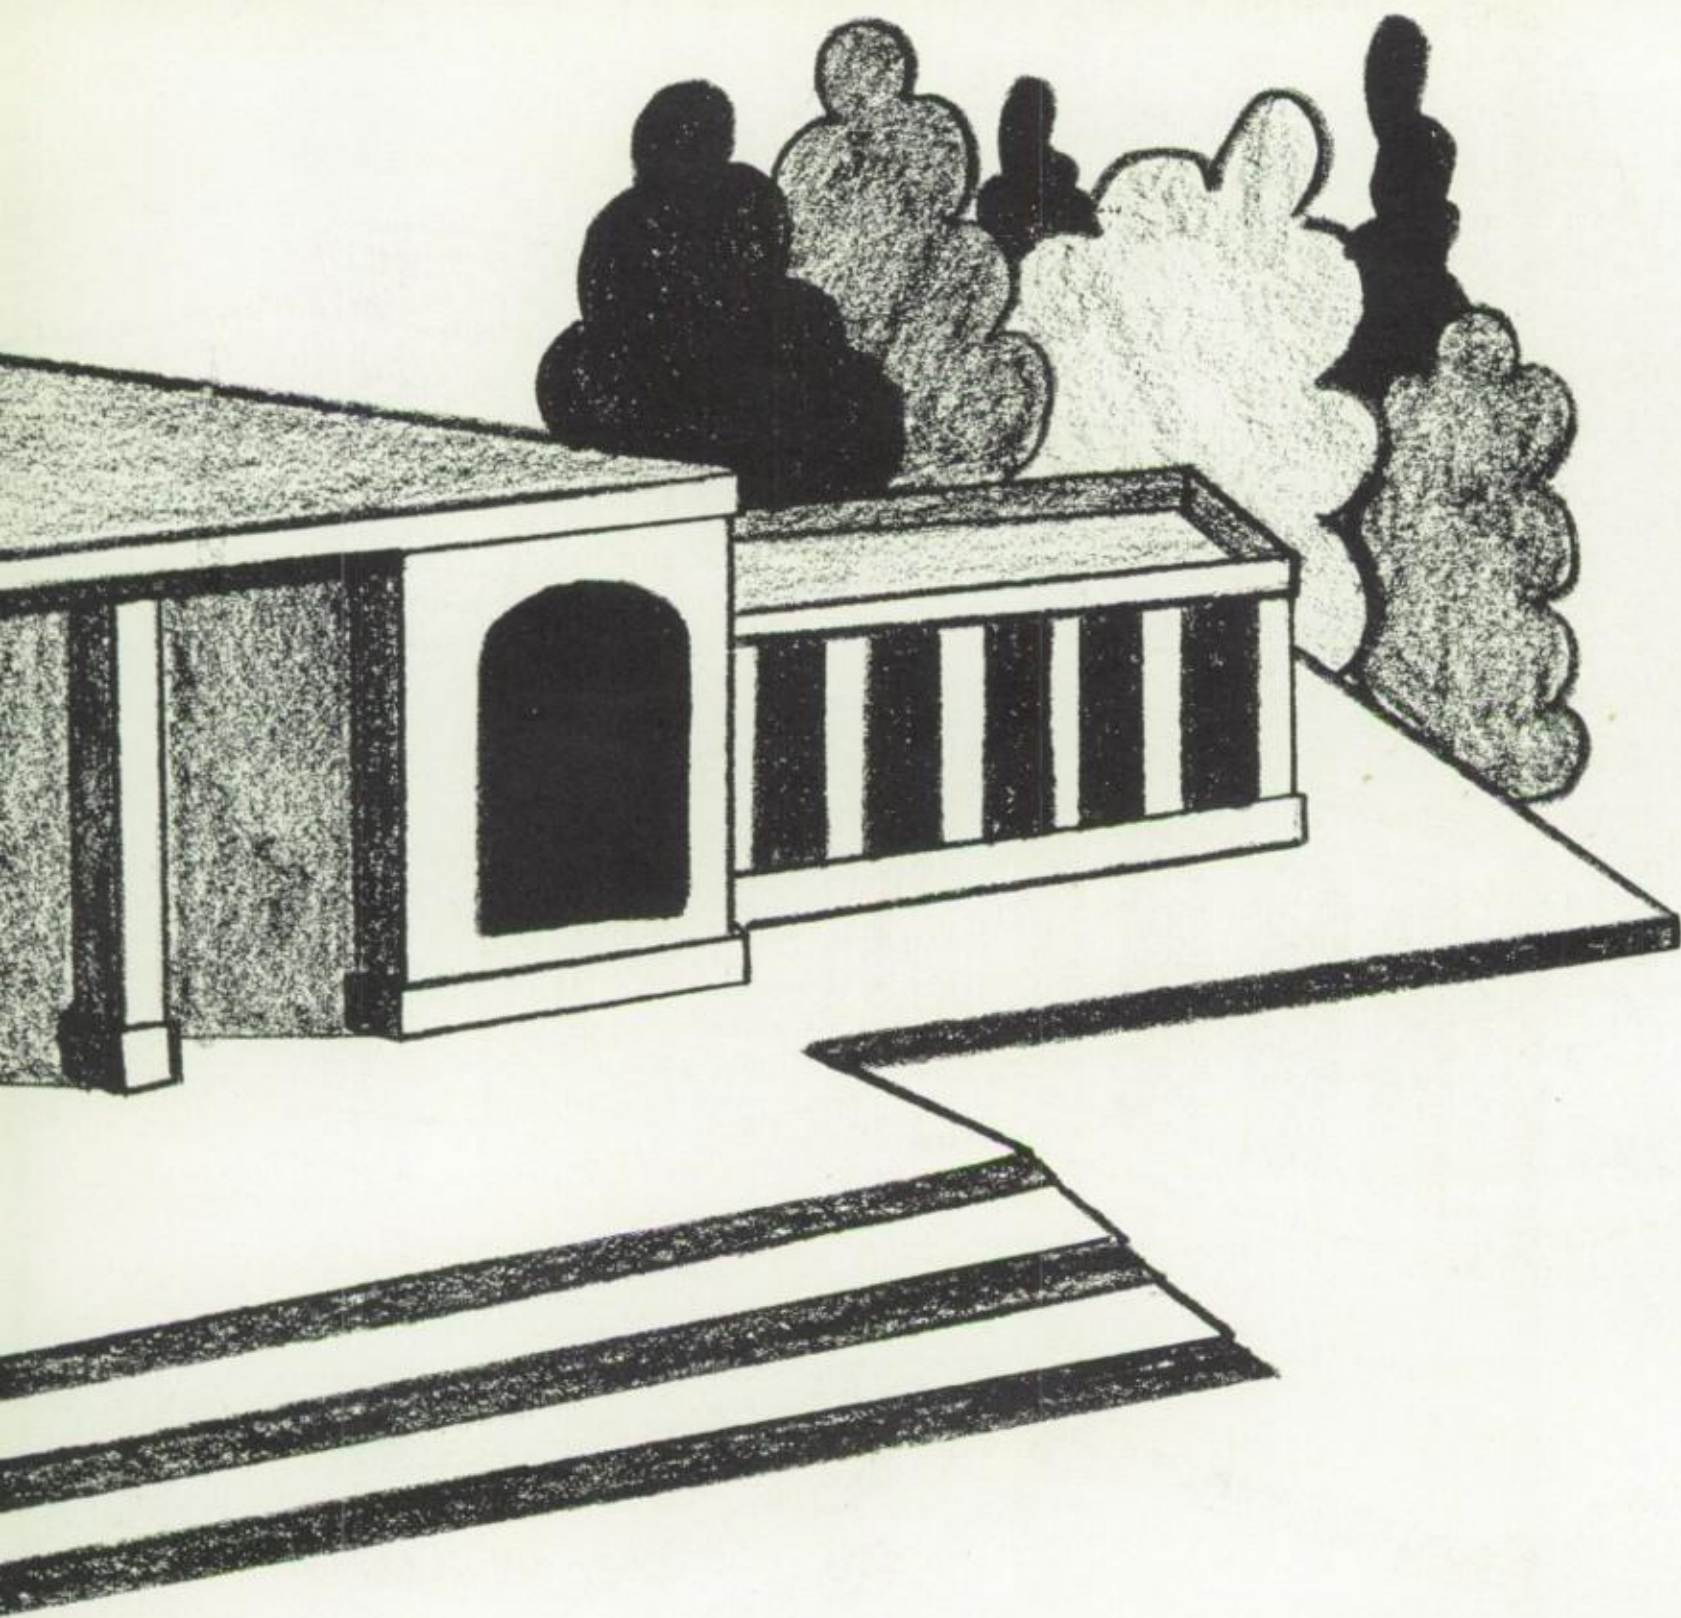

To you, Mr. Berger, the class of 1961 dedicates its volume of the Spectator. The patience, proficiency, and understanding you've exercised in class and out has made it difficult to express the admiration and esteem we feel you merit.

Your constant humor, clever wit, and consent to intervene and advise has helped not only to relax class tension, but has impressed upon us character worthy of emulation.

In closing, we hope this humble tribute lays bare our heartfelt appreciation and gratitude for being more than just a teacher — but a friend and confidante as well.

ADMINIST

RATION

Dr. Harry Shenk, Supervising Principal
B.A. — Dickinson College
M.A. — Gettysburg College
D.Ed. — Pennsylvania State University

You have begun your last year in the public schools in 1960 — the beginning of a new decade. When the new decade arrives, you will have seen many changes in your lives. Collectively, you will have experienced higher education, technical training, apprenticeships, adjustments to new positions, adult tasks, voting privileges, marriage, children, family responsibilities, joys, sorrows, successes, failures, aspirations, disappointments, friendships, unfriendly relations, gratitude, regrets.

As we look at you individually, we cannot predict to whom the pleasant and positive experiences will fall; nor can we predict what additional perplexing problems you may meet. However, we can point out to you certain characteristics which you should strive to develop as supplements to your academic learning — truth, belief in a higher Being, integrity, morality, dependability, honesty, work habits, a spirit of friendliness. These traits will improve your lot in life.

Upon graduation, promise to develop these traits, and, having promised, don't fail to do what you have promised.

Harry H. Shenk

Mr. Marsteller, Elementary Supervisor; Mr. Glatfelter, Business Manager; Mr. McSherry Administrative Assistant.

SECRETARIES: (STANDING) Mrs. Geesey, Mrs. Reidel, (SEATED) Mrs. Shearer.

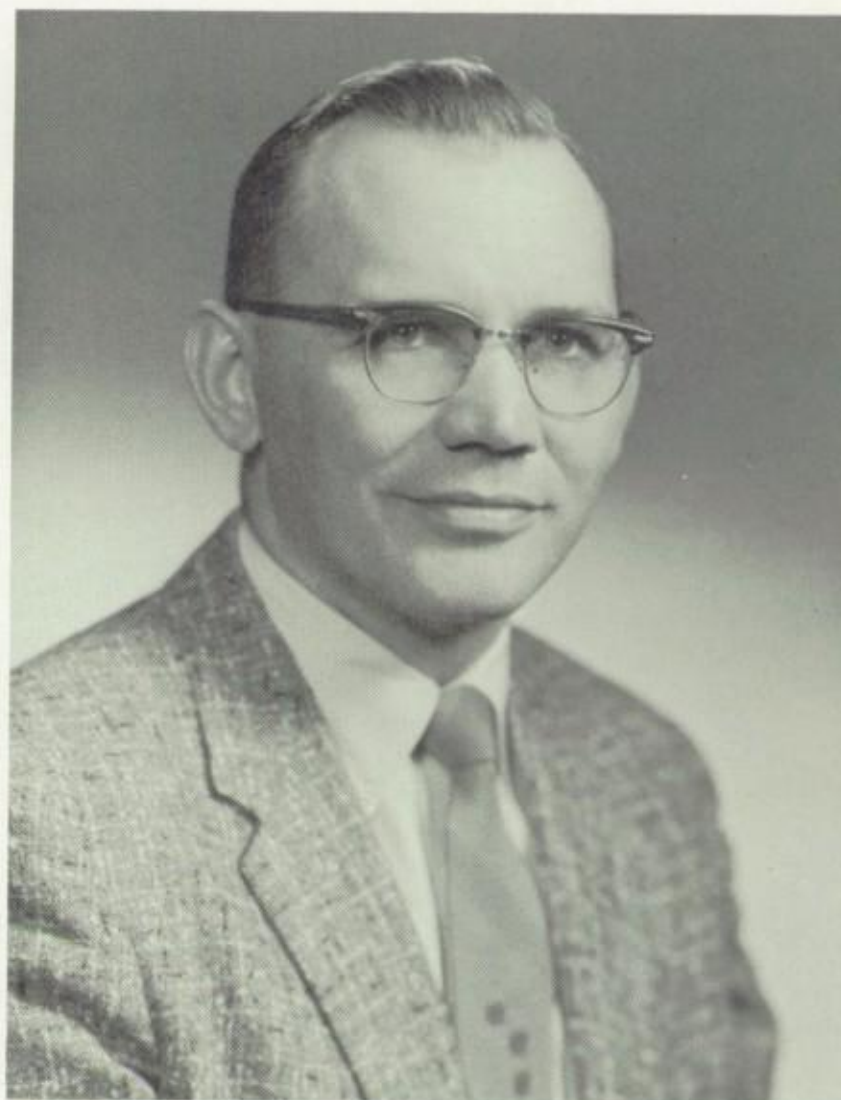

Congratulations to you for having successfully completed your public education!

You have now reached a milestone in your young life. We trust that your life will have many more similar milestones, for you see you are a part of the world now engaged in a cold war which in reality is a war for the minds of men. At no time in history has there been more need for clear thinking than today. Ideologies beset us on all sides and with all techniques of modern propaganda, often appear sensible. Out of this mass of ideas must come your inner beliefs and ultimate decision that man is God's greatest creation and the worth of an individual is more than the whole world. In this thinking is the need of today and the hope of tomorrow. We can feel confident that the training you have received here at Dallastown Area High School will help you to reach this goal.

May you live that your school will be able to say with pride, "That's one of our alumni, we're happy to have been a part of his past."

1961 AD

Out of Ages past,
A product of the progress
And the failures
Of man and nations,
Arises the youth.
We have been enriched
And encouraged
By this past glory;
We have greatly profited
From these errors.
Now our days as students are over.
Armed with the knowledge reaped from bygone years,
We must face the present
And the future.
With heads uplifted,
Spirits soaring,
Hearts and souls aflame with newfound dignity,
We march onward and upward,
Our goal: A greater world for us,
And our posterity.

Our prayer is this:
That God accept our humble plea
For Guidance
Through the years to come,
So that after death we meet again
In Eternity.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1961, of Dallastown Area High School, being of sane mind and sound body, do make and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby cancelling and making void all previous wills by us heretofore made. Upon leaving our beloved Alma Mater we do bequeath to the faculty, underclassmen, and friends the following described and named personal belongings.

- I, Charles Aldinger, leave my family living book to anyone intelligent enough to use it.
- I, Dale Anderson, leave nothing; I'm taking it all with me.
- I, William Arnold, leave my end position on the football team to Jim Noll.
- I, Sandra Ashton, leave my "Guten Tag's" to anyone who wants to sound off in German class.
- I, Ronald Attig, leave physics class to anyone with a slide rule.
- I, Clifford Baer, leave my accounting book to Dennis Raver if he thinks he can handle it.
- I, Mary Bankert, leave Mr. Stein's P.O.D. classes to anyone who is fortunate enough to get him.
- I, Barbara Barshinger, leave both American and world literature to anyone who is ignorant enough to take them for electives.
- I, Martha Barshinger, leave my recipe for "les toddies chauds" with Ellen Rae Kauffman.
- I, Robert Barshinger, leave my seat in P.O.D. class to anyone who wants it.
- I, Carolyn Baseshore, leave my seat in Mr. Stine's P.O.D. class to whoever likes to argue with him.
- I, William Baseshore, leave my trig book to anyone who likes triangles.
- I, Linda Bear, leave my position as head majorette to any girl deserving of it.
- I, Joyce Beck, leave my French II book to Barbara Trout because it's all Greek to me.
- I, Mary Jane Blymire, leave my French book to anyone who is lucky enough to be able to read it.
- I, Dawn Brenneman, leave my first period study halls to anyone who is lucky enough to get them.
- I, Judy Brenneman, leave my shorthand dictation to anyone who is able to write it.
- I, Gordon Brown, leave my guard position on the football team to Dennis Raver.
- I, Mary Ann Bull, leave my advanced biology notes to anyone who can decipher them.
- I, Terry Campbell, leave my review arithmetic book to anyone with brains and a slide rule.
- I, Brenda Chronister, leave my fun of getting kicked out of the library to Ronnie Fitz.
- I, Sandra Clayton, leave my shorthand notes to any junior who thinks he can read them.
- I, Donald Creager, leave my seat in Coin Club to anyone who wants to get rich.
- I, Harold Creager, leave my seat in the band to any future trumpet player.
- I, Dorothea Crull, leave my cafeteria ticket to anyone who wishes to die young.
- I, Barbara Daughtery, leave the biggest unpaid bill of my senior year to Connie Barley.
- I, LeRoy Daughtery, leave my naps in English class to anyone who doesn't snore.

- I, Charles Tyson, leave my talking in assemblies to Walt Myers.
- I, David Van Over, leave my position as BEACON representative to anyone who can count money correctly.
- I, Jim Wagman, leave being of a sound mind and all my books to Jimmy Noll.
- I, Nada Wagner, leave gym locker 52 to Bradley Thomas so he can take gym with his many female friends.
- I, Gerald Waltamyer, just leave.
- I, Lonnie Weaver, leave my "red suede shoes" for Mr. Berger and Mr. Pottorff to fight over.
- I, Mary Welty, leave my seat in English to anyone who likes to make speeches.
- I, Kathy Williams, leave my language classes to my enemies, my friends don't deserve them.
- I, Pat Williams, leave my place in chorus to anyone that has a vocal chord.
- I, Doris Wise, leave my place at the "snack bar" to anyone who can find it.
- I, Beverly Workinger, leave my shorthand class to anyone who can keep up with the dictation.
- I, Ray Ziegler, leave my seat in Spanish II to Byran Raab.

We do hereby make, constitute, and appoint the members of the Class of 1962 to be sole executors of this, our last will and testament and request that they be permitted to serve without sureties on their bond and that without application to, or order convey, exchange, any of the personal property of our estate.

In witness whereof, We, the Class of 1961, the testators forenamed, have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seals, the fifteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty.

THE CLASS SONG

Words and Music by Ann Snyder, '61

Through the eyes of the be- hold- er can be seen set a- part, high on a hill of deep- est green, our Al- ma Ma- ter brave and true repres- ents to me, to you, To strive toward pe- ace and knowl- edge, free- dom's goal for- ever- er more.

CLASS HISTORY

THE curtain falls upon the many scenes of our high school memoirs, only to rise once again; this time it rises upon life's largest role — the setting, the adult world. The majority of us will fit the role quite well because of our excellent guidance and our fine preparation for it during the past years.

Let us relive the colorful events of our freshman year and the early development of our enlarged and refined Class of 1961. With Mr. Charles Leber as our class advisor, our annual election of officers was conducted with these results: Charles Tyson, president; Helen Rojahn, vice-president; Gretchen Stein, secretary; and Dawn Fife, treasurer. One of the outstanding events of that year was our class assembly program modeled after the television show "The Price Is Right." Panel members were selected from the audience and the winning members were presented with complimentary gifts from friendly business associates in our area. Our freshman year was climaxed with a bus trip to Hershey Park.

As sophomores we had to become accustomed not only to a new edifice, Dallastown Area High School, but also to the numerous unfamiliar faces of both students and faculty. This proved to be an adventuresome as well as a beneficial experience. The Class of 1961 progressed under the supervision of Mr. Harold Berger and Miss Susan Kise. Charles Tyson was again elected president; Dawn Fife, vice-president; Daryl Hinkle, secretary; and James Sites, treasurer.

As juniors, our class advisors were Mr. Charles Landis and Miss Virginia Kressman and our student leaders consisted of Daryl Hinkle as president; Donald Patterson as vice-president; Patti Snyder as secretary; and Linda Bear as treasurer. The Junior Class was responsible for the Thanksgiving assembly in which some of our fine actors and actresses presented quite a humorous play entitled "When Elmer Played John Alden." After many long hours of practice, our dramatic performers again displayed their talents in our successful junior play, "Sister of the Bride," under the direction of Mrs. Elaine Brown.

And now we have reached the top of the ladder. As upperclassmen we elected Donald Patterson president; Daryl Hinkle, vice-president; Patti Snyder and Linda Bear were appreciative of the assistance which Mr. Ivanhoe Winemiller and Mrs. Mary Waltman have given us, as our class advisors. This year our class production was a mystery comedy entitled "Bull in a China Shop," directed by Mrs. Helen Schaeffer. We put forth much effort in compiling our class publication, the SPECTATOR, along with our advisor, Mr. Harry Cooper. A major highlight of this year was our thrilling class trip to metropolitan New York City. Our school days are now ended, but memories of Baccalaureate and Commencement will remain firm in our minds. Together, we shared our last hours as seniors at our elaborately planned Commencement Ball.

As the curtain falls it seems to separate the past from the future, but we know that it can not shut out the memories of our Alma Mater. We know that we do not face the future blindly; for with the light cast from past experience and with the light of our Heavenly Father, our footsteps will be guided in the right direction.

The Yearbook, compiled and edited by the Senior Class, consists of the various activities which have taken place throughout the past year. It was a very tedious job to put the Yearbook together, but many happy times were spent while working on it.

The literary staff, with the aid of their advisor, Mr. Cooper, prepared the literary work for publication. The editors and their staffs worked diligently in order to meet the deadlines set to finish the book for distribution.

Throughout the year, a representative from the yearbook company visited the yearbook meetings and helped with various problems. He always administered help and their experiences. They, through this book, are adding a greater variety of worth to

The Yearbook was stifling, but everyone on the literary staff learned much through their experiences. They, through this book, are adding a greater variety of worth to their school days.

The business staff of the Yearbook, consisting of the managers and their associates, completed the many business transactions for our Yearbook. They, under the direction of their advisor, Mr. Winemiller, worked on the various business phases of the book.

The advisor compiled a budget or estimate, and secured bids on photography, printing, and binding. He also secured and signed contracts.

The business staff had the job of finding an income sufficient to pay the expenses of publishing the Yearbook. In order to do this, they sold subscriptions and advertisements, secured patrons, and then distributed the book to subscribers.

SEATED: Gary Alcorn, Linda Sechrist, Jean Blessing, Doris Malehorn, Barbara Barshinger. STANDING: Mr. Leber, Mr. Hays, Mr. Crumling, Miss Shryock.

MAGAZINE CAMPAIGN

The magazine campaign was held in October. The campaign began with an assembly, at which time Mr. Harold Schriver, sales representative from Curtis Publishing Company, explained the sales program.

Total sales from the campaign amounted to $6,132 with the school profit amounting to $2,090.

The high salesman in the campaign was Gary Alcorn. Doris Malehorn, Jean Blessing, and Linda Sechrist were second, third, and fourth high salesmen, respectively.

Barbara Barshinger served as captain of the campaign. Mr. Charles Leber had charge of the sales in senior high and Mr. Merle Crumling had charge of the sales in junior high. Clerical work was in charge of Mr. Robert Hays and Miss Caroline Shryock.

This year's school newspaper, the Beacon, contained articles which kept the students informed on the recent happenings around the school. It consisted of a news page, a feature page, a news-feature page, and a sports page.

For the second consecutive year, a first place rating was achieved by the Beacon according to the standards of the Pennsylvania School Press Association.

Dallastown students were kept up-to-date on the latest happenings around school by the eager and energetic Beacon staff. They met every week and received new assignments upon which they worked long hours in order to meet their deadlines. Endless work was required and spent on the various articles, but the results made it all worthwhile.

The ever-informative Beacon literary staff worked diligently with their advisors, Mrs. Sheffer and Miss Whitcomb. Together, they produced a newspaper filled with news, stories, poems, features, and sports of high rank and quality.

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Play, "Bull in a China Shop" by C. B. Gilford, was presented on November 17 and 19, 1960. It was under the direction of Mrs. H. S. Schaeffer.

As the play opens, the six spinsters are using binoculars to spy on a handsome detective who lived across the street. Many exciting events take place when they try to meet him.

Characters in the play were: Ben Root — Detective Dennis O'Finn; Sylvia Lentz — Miss Hildegard Hodge, proprietor of a boarding house for elderly ladies; Janet Enfield — Miss Birdie, a boarder; Ann Snyder — Miss Amantha, a boarder; Jeannette Matthews — Miss Lucy, a boarder; Audrey Hoke — Miss Nettie Norton, a boarder; Patti Snyder — Miss Elizabeth, a boarder; Lonnie Weaver — Detective Kramer; Gary Geiselman and James Schroeder — stretcher bearers; Andrea Musser — Jane Rodgers, a lady reporter for the Herald Globe; Donald Patterson — Johnson, a police finger-printing expert.

JUNIOR PLAY

On March 31 and April 2, 1960, the Junior Class presented a three act play entitled "Sister of the Bride." The play was written by Robert Sinclair and was under the direction of Mrs. Elaine Brown and Audrey Hoke, student directress.

The play takes place in the Ferris living room and the family is preparing for the wedding of Gloria Ferris. The young teenage sister, Penny, has to give up very much for the sake of a stylish wedding. However, a surprise ending finds everyone happy.

Right: As Penny chats on the phone, Mrs. Ferris and Gloria discuss plans for Gloria's wedding.

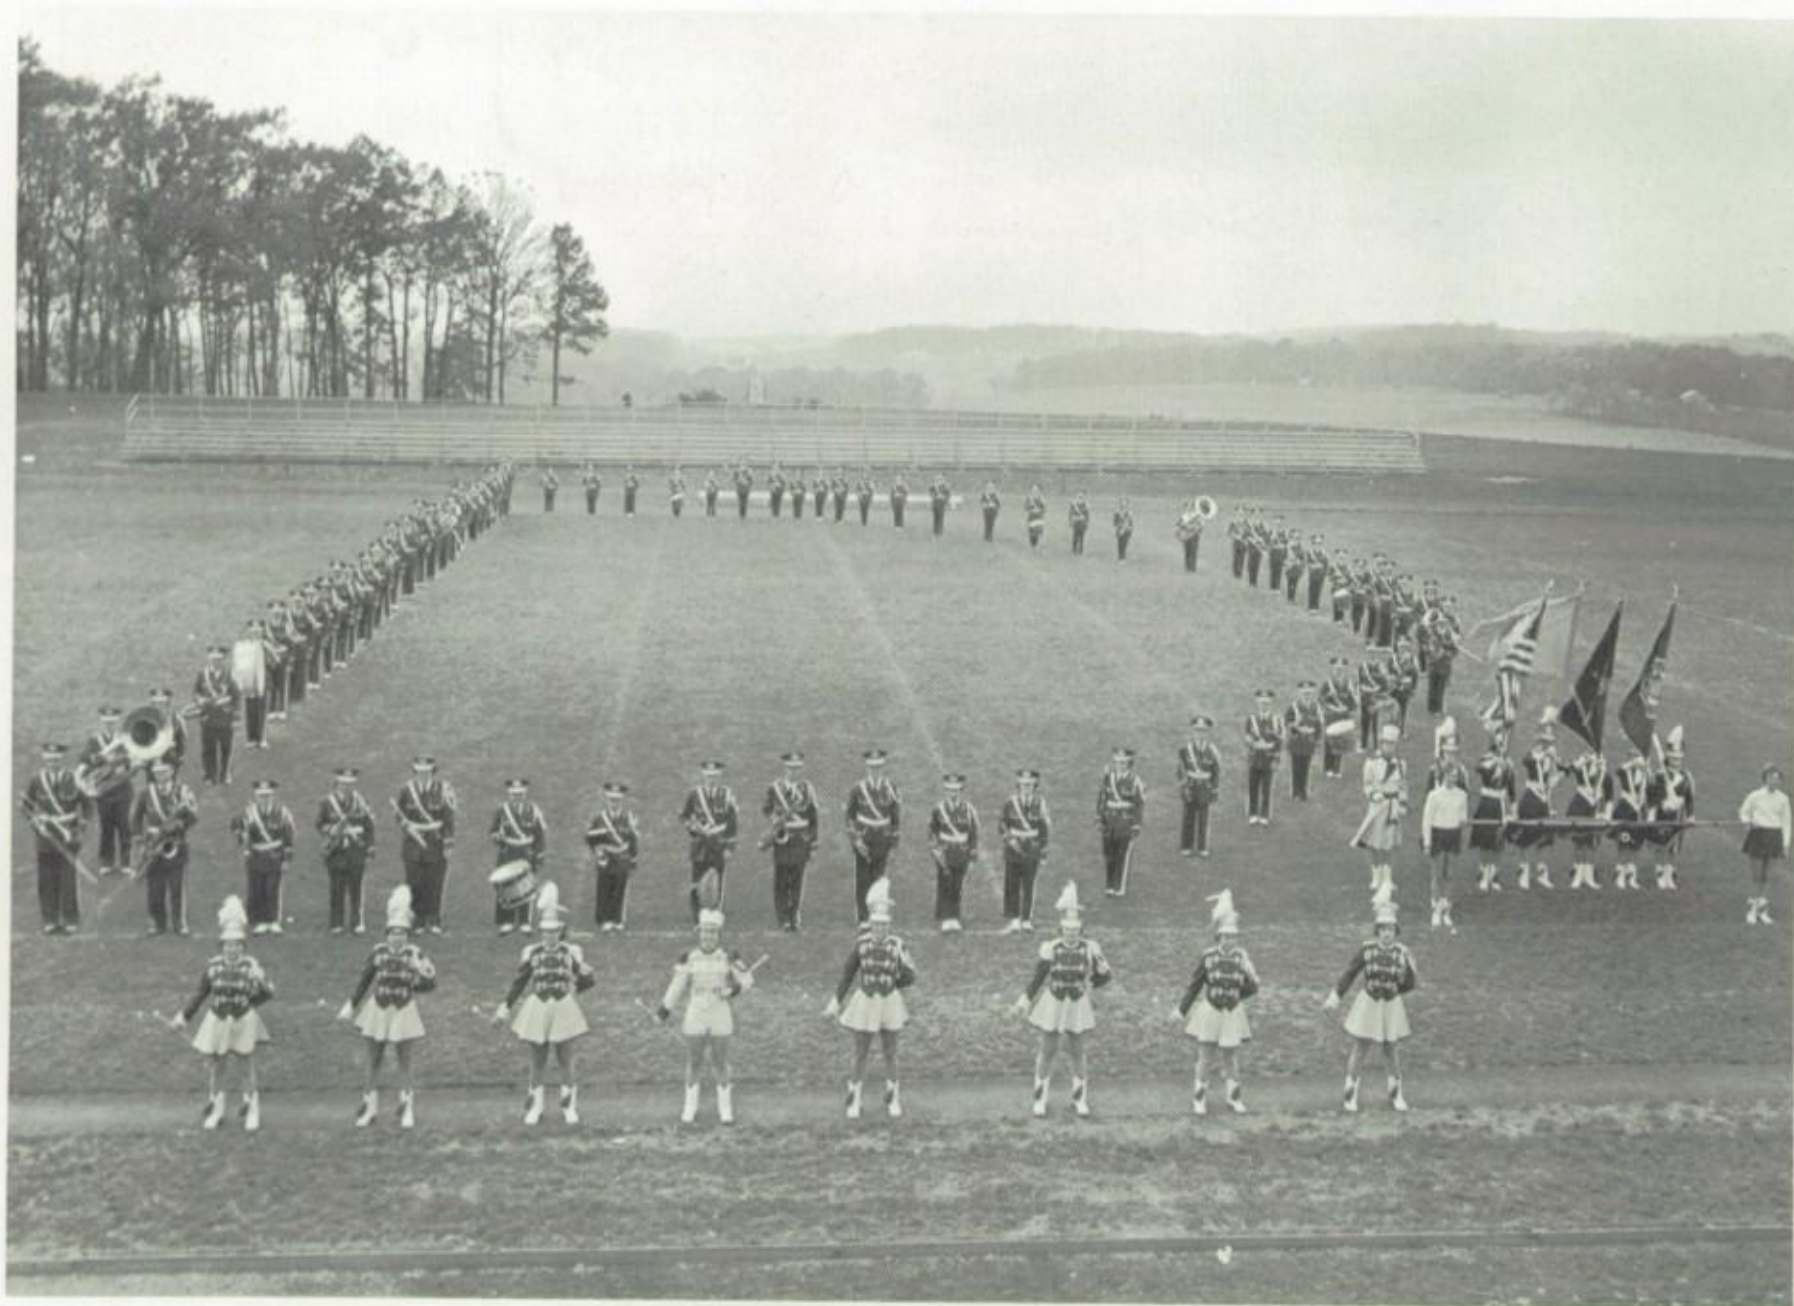

Below: Penny leaves in disgust as Dee Dee flirts with Wilbur.

Above: Mr. Ferris looks in wonder at his beautiful daughter as she confronts him before the wedding.

MARCHING BAND

Under the able direction of Mr. Campanella our band met every Friday during home-room period. Band membership was open to any junior or senior high school student having the ability to play a band instrument.

Whenever the weather permitted the band performed at the football games. The band was a great morale booster to the team and fans. The marching band also performed in several local parades. The concert band performed in the "Night of Music."

Linda Bear was the capable head majorette of the Dallastown Area High School band, Terry Fix, the assistant conductor; and Jean Henle, the Sergeant of Arms.

Scores

The football season was one of mixed feeling. The season saw our first night football game with the Wildcats defeating the Kennard Dale Rams before a large crowd. We lost to our neighbors, Red Lion and York Suburban. Our spirits were high when playing Central and Spring Grove but were dampened when we lost to Central by fumbling an apparent touchdown in the end zone and losing to Spring Grove in the last minute of play after two touchdowns were called back because of penalties. To the team and coaches we owe congratulations for the pleasures and heartaches of the football season.

Dallastown's Junior High completed its first year of league competition in football. The team, as a whole, was inexperienced nevertheless the boys worked hard at practices and gave a good showing in all competition. The team under the supervision of Ronald Grove and Ronald Pottorff played against more experienced teams, such as Red Lion, Spring Grove and West York and found themselves on the short end of the scores. In spite of these scores, the team learned much about football and will be able to gain knowledge that will be invaluable to them in their future varsity years.

SENIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

JoAnn Huson, Audrey Hoke, Deanna Saylor, Sally Sherrick and Linda Mitzel.

Dallastown's cheerleaders have done much to deserve recognition. Each squad has worked together as a unit in promoting invaluable school spirit as well as cheering themselves hoarse at every sporting event.

In the past year all three squads have participated in the York County Cheerleading Contest. As usual, they performed well and came in second.

The Class of '61 extends a sincere note of gratitude to each cheerleader for her meritable service.

The Senior Varsity was under the leadership of Coach Miller. Even though the team was composed mainly of seniors they lacked the basketball experience that goes with championship teams. This lack of experience showed itself in our first two games when the Wildcats lost to the Hanover Nighthawks and the Northeastern Bobcats. The team rebounded and showed real class in defeating the Mustangs of Southwestern and the Alumni.

Jr. High Coach Dale Miller Jr. Varsity Coach Barry Stein
Varsity Coach Gerald Miller

In the Susquehannock tournament, a new venture this year, our team took third place by defeating the host school, Susquehannock, in the consolation game. Our Wildcats continued their winning ways by defeating Susquehannock in our first league encounter. Our first league loss was to our arch rivals Red Lion. This loss was followed by league victories over Northeastern and Kennard Dale.

Coach Stein's Junior Varsity at this writing is enjoying a rather comfortable position over all their opponents. As of now, the Junior Varsity is undefeated with victories over Red Lion, Northeastern, Kennard Dale, Susquehannock and Hanover High. But the Wildcat underlings are not completely secure for Spring Grove, Central, and West York also remain undefeated. The Junior Wildcats soon encounter these league leaders. Coach Stein has set his goal at the championship and it looks as though the Junior Varsity has the same idea in mind.

JR. HIGH BASKETBALL

Our Junior Wildcats worked hard from the start of the basketball season on November 1 to the very end. This hard work and concentration paid high dividends. Under the leadership of Coach Miller, the Junior High team has not tasted defeat as of this writing. This also can be said of the Junior High Junior Varsity. Among their victories are games over Dover, Susquehannock, and Northeastern.

The Junior High team has defeated Dover in an exhibition game and Susquehannock, Red Lion, Northeastern, Kennard Dale in league competition to lead their division with a four won none lost record. You can tell if their early record will stand by the time you read this printed page. Our prediction is that it will stand and they will have remained in first place in the Eastern division of the York County Junior High Basketball League.

VOLLEYBALL

The 1959-60 volleyball team concluded another season at Dallastown. The girls put forth a great deal of hard work and showed fine team effort. They were somewhat handicapped in comparison to other teams in that volleyball is a relatively new sport at Dallastown and most of the girls were newcomers with the fundamentals of the game.

The volleyball team played Spring Grove at home but were unable to overcome their opponent: 15-7, 15-4, 15-4.

Kennard Dale handed the volleyball team another loss by defeating Dallastown 15-4, 15-9, 15-5.

Visiting West York handed the Wildcats another loss but was unable to win the last match: 15-0, 15-3, 13-15.

Under the capable supervision of Murray Davidson and James Beck, Dallastown's Wildcat grapplers exerted boundless energy. In this their first year of interscholastic competition, the boys overcame the lack of experience by diligent practice. Diets became a vital part of their lives since making a weight class determined their eligibility. The season was a rousing success even though the number of matches won did not place us in the upper half of the league final standings. The future of wrestling looks bright since the squad was composed of underclassmen except for these seniors: George Everhart, James McDowell, David Dehoff, and Richard Sprenkle.

SR. HIGH TRACK

Dallastown's track team enjoyed an exceptionally fine season in that they won all their interscholastic meets. In an exhibition meet with York High the Dallastown track men triumphed over the Bearcats by a score of 68—50. The Wildcats entered the Lebanon Relays where they placed second. Spurred on by the relays the team won a trophy and twelve medals. The Wildcats soon racked up another victory by defeating Central 83½—71½. Dallastown's mile relay participated in the Penn Relays where they placed second but were boosted to first by a disqualification. However, this good luck did not prevail for our team was disqualified on a minor infraction of the rules. Coach Leber and Coach Rohrbaugh did a fine job in bringing the boys to victory throughout the season.

The Wildcats baseball team has completed another season filled with fun, excitement, and hard work. The team had a relatively good season finishing with a 6-4 record. The boys under the coaching of Hal Berger lost two games early in the season but responded quickly and began their winning streak. Their hard work was repaid when in the last game of the season they defeated the league leaders, Red Lion, by a 6 to 4 score.

February, 1961

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Spectator staff of '61, I wish to extend sincere appreciation and thanks to those persons meritable of recognition.

First, to Mr. Harry F. Cooper who ably put us on our feet; then to Mr. Clair F. Trout and Mr. F. W. Winemiller who later assumed the responsibility of keeping us there.

Secondly, might I bestow a special letter of merit upon our publisher; the yearbook representative, Mr. Neil Layton; our photographer, Mr. Henry M. Blatner - all of whom have displayed an infinite capacity of patience and understanding.

Last, but far from least, to you - patrons, advertisers, and purchasers - for without you our purpose would have been defeated.

As for myself, I deem this year's staff unprecedented in their ability, as well as their desire to employ it. To each and every one I say, "thank you" in a most heartfelt and meaningful manner.

Enclosing, I deeply hope, as I'm sure we all do, that this literary and pictorial product has, in some way, intimated to each spectator emotions and desires experienced and anticipated by the class of '61.

Sincerely yours,
Martha Bersinger
